Steven A. Cohen was caught in one of the biggest insider trading scandals in recent history. He couldn't manage outside money for 2 years, Boo-hoo. Stevie likes to taunt others, and has a documented social behavior that seems to gel so nicely with everything about him. Point72 bailed out Melvin Capital after GameStop didn't go bankrupt in 2021, then took some back. Trading is tough.

"Trading is a tough game. Don't you think?"
